All were presented with their badges in a special assembly today. Good luck in your roles.

I am pleased to announce that our new Poet Laureate for this academic year is Amarissa Bilbeisi from 6T. Congratulations in becoming our eighth school poet.

You should have all received a copy of our Learning Partnership Promise from your child's class teacher. One of the key parent/carer promises is to 'Speak directly to the school and not discuss school issues on social network sites'. Thank you to everyone who does this well and speaks directly to their child's class teacher to resolve teething problems, it is much appreciated. On Friday 24th, the chair of our Teaching and Learning Council governors, Sarah Openshaw, will officially open our wonderful new nursery and hall buildings. When I arrived at Kelvedon in January 2010 there were seven demountable 'huts' on the site. The School Council asked me to improve the accommodation. Systematically this has been achieved and now, with the tremendous support of my hard working volunteer governing bodies, there are ZERO demountable buildings left!

Attached to this newsletter are some lists of the incredible achievements that successive School Councils have made for their school. I know that our new School Council will have aspirations that will continue this success.

Art Solutions are back next week to work with Key Stage 1 children on Monday and Tuesday. The theme is dinosaurs; I know that the children will love making these displays. Good luck everyone.

Learning together, M. Walsh
