

Summary of the plot of Romeo & Juliet by Daniel Ellis

Once upon a time (many years ago in Verona, Italy) there lived two rivalling families the Montague's and the Capulets.

This story consists of two main characters: Juliet from the Capulets and Romeo from the Montagues. One night Lord Capulet held a huge party (and obviously banned all Montague's from attending) but a young Montague named Romeo said he was going. Romeo was desperate to attend because he knew his love Rosaline would be there with another man and he wanted to follow.

Romeo's love for Rosaline was strange as Rosaline didn't love him back.

When the night came for the party, Romeo was going to attend it with his two friends Mercutio and Benvolio.

Lord Capulet was a gracious host and welcomed them in without hesitation.

Everyone dressed marvellously, the women were wearing their finest velvets and the men wore gem studded swords. Romeo also wore his best with a black mask over his eyes and nose.

After a bit of time at the party, Romeo saw the most beautiful girl and in that moment he completely forgot about Rosaline. He asked for her name; it was Juliet. However, next to her was her cousin (Tybal); he noticed Romeo and was angry that he snuck into the party. He said he was going to kill him if it was the last thing he did

Later that night, Romeo and Juliet met in Juliet's back garden and confessed their love to each other. The next day, Romeo ran to Friar Lawrence and begged him to wed him and Juliet. After some convincing, he said yes thinking it would end the feud between the two families.

Therefore, they got married the next morning and after the wedding Romeo says, he will see her later.

However, a little before Romeo and Juliet were to talk, a knight named Tybal was angry at Romeo for attending the party so he attacks Romeo and instead of Romeo he kills Romeo's friend.

Just then, with pure rage, Romeo kills Tybal and for this Romeo is banished he tells Juliet and they both cry about it.

When Romeo is gone, her father tells her that she will marry another man. Juliet refuses and her father says he will disown her if she does not wed the man he had chosen so she runs to friar Lawrence to ask for help. He tells her to agree to the wedding but take this potion the day before. The potion will put you to sleep for two days so that you can fake your death. I will tell Romeo to come back tomorrow.

Later that day, she takes the potion and everyone finds her dead so she is taken down to the tomb. Whilst this is happening, Romeo's servant tells him that Juliet is dead.

He rushes back to see if she really is dead and all he sees is her not moving. Romeo is saddened by this so he drinks a vial of poison kissing his love one more time. He dies a few hours' later. Juliet wakes only to see Romeo dead next to her.

After seeing this, she takes Romeo's dagger and ends her life. When the two families see their...
