

Romeo and Juliet

There are two groups of people the Capulets and the Montagues and they always argue, and they have never got on. So, King Capulet decided to throw a party for the Capulets, and he gave a list to some of the servants to invite people. One of the servants came across Romeo and asked what the name said on the envelope because he could not read, and Romeo said it said his name on there, along with his friends Benvolio and Mercutio. The reason he said that is because he saw the love of his life's name on the list Rosalina, but Rosalina does not love him. On the night of the party he and his friends came to the party and wore masks to crash the party, then he saw this beautiful woman called Juliet the daughter of King Capulet.

Romeo went over to Juliet and they talked for a while and then they kissed, and Juliet's dad called for Juliet to go back to the house. Romeo went back through the party on his way back home when Tybalt threatened him for being a Montague and said he wanted to fight but then Juliet's dad said there will be no fighting tonight and Romeo left while Tybalt gave him a grim stare. The next night Romeo went to Juliet's house and talked to her from the garden while Juliet was on her balcony. The next day they both went to Friar Lawrence and they asked to get married and Friar Lawrence reluctantly agreed because he wanted the Montagues and Capulets to stop fighting. So, they were to be married but that night Romeo's friend Mercutio died while fighting Tybalt, so Romeo went and killed Tybalt and then Romeo was banished from the Capulets land for ever. So, this man called Paris wanted to marry Juliet, but she refused and went to Friar Lawrence and he gave her a potion which will make her dead for 2 days and she takes it a night before her wedding with Paris. Romeo goes to the grave and meets Paris there and Romeo kills Paris and lays his body next to Juliet's. And then Romeo decides to poison himself after kissing dead Juliet on the lips and then Juliet wakes up and sees Romeo dead and she takes Romeo's dagger and stabs herself. Both of the leaders of the Montagues and Capulets started getting along and they promised to build gold statues of Romeo and one for Juliet right next to each other.
